There are people in this city who are still saying the late revival was all extitionent, and just for the time it was being held that long were the people in earnest. They have only to look around and see the older ladles in a midweek prayer-meeting, the young ladles in a prayer and prake service once a week and the good people of the First Ward cholding meetings nightly at their respective residences. If this is the spirit of revivals and the harvest that is reaped after its close, we say give Mayaville another one and see if we can't do away with all the vice in our city.

AN EXPLANATION

In Regard to Decoration Day at Shannon Cemetery.

A few days since, in discussing the matter of observing Decoration Day at Shannon, it was suggested by some folks of that vicility thets meeting he held at the M. E. Church in Sardis on the exhips of the 4th inst., with a view to enlisting the interest of the people of Sardis in the matter, they having been kindly invited to participate in the exercises of the day.

kindly involted to participate in the exercises of the day. Theing asked to oren the church for the meeting, and to give the announcement as much rutilicity as possible. The reddly promised to do so. The church was opened at 5 o'clock, the hour desirement, and atthough I had made every effort to scure an audience, a number of prominent exopte having received some two or three invitations, for some reason the crused was not at all what was anticipated or what it should have been.

want was anticipated for what it satural have been.
Since it has been reported that I did not do my duty, and that a disposition of neglect, etc., was exhibited on our part I wish, through your paper, to correct the impression, and to any for the young peoneglect, etc., was exhibited on our part I wish, through your paper, to correct the laspression, and to say for the young people of Sardis tata they never do things by balves or show an unwillingness to engage in any good undertaklus, and I feet that they would certaisally have no besitancy in assisting their Shannon neighbors in a work wo laudable as that of rememoring the sacred deat at the heautiful cemetery of Shannon.
